

Love on the Day of Fools

— A note from Pastor Ken —

What comes to mind when you think about Lent? Is it repentance? Is it giving things up? Is it the cross? Is it darkness? Is it the color purple? Any and all of these would be understandable. They each have their roots somewhere in the midst of this upcoming season. Of course there is the other side as well — when thinking of Lent is guilt what comes to mind?

For many Lent is a time of excessive guilt. Guilt from the ways in which one's life is not living up to what God intends. Guilt from one's perceived lack of commitment. Guilt from years and years of being told to feel guilty. This guilt can weigh upon a person so that Lent becomes a negative experience, rather than the high point of the year, which it is.

Does it sound strange to think of Lent as a high point? With all the baggage we bring to this season that is not surprising. But lest we forget that Lent has historically been the time of preparation for baptism at the Easter vigil. I know this isn't our particular practice, but that is the history. To use this time for individuals and communities to prepare for the gift of baptism and I just can't come up with a higher point than being transformed into new life in Christ through baptism.

Of course preparation is not the full expression of what the thing is. That is, the preparation for baptism isn't a baptism in itself, just as the high point of Easter is not the same as the preparation through Lent. Lent is expectation, whereas Easter is a full expression of celebration and joy. But can't our preparation — the disciplines we use, the rituals we partake in — lead us to be ready to celebrate the amazing and transformational thing God is about to do through the death and resurrection of Jesus?

I ask these questions because Lent will have a different feel this year. The Narrative Lectionary will move us in a different way through the season. Whereas in most years Lent is made up of stories of Jesus life — stories that share lessons in following — this year our journey will be different. This year's journey will take us through the final pieces of Jesus' life. By the third week of Lent we will be at Jesus trial and move from week to week through his interactions with the authorities. On what has traditionally been Palm Sunday and Jesus triumphant entry, we will witness Jesus crucifixion. This year it won't be about our journey, but rather witnessing each step of Jesus journey to the cross. And this kind of movement has the potential to lead us into a dark place that has no sense of preparation for celebration when again, that is what the season is.

This may still sound strange and unexpected — Lent as a time of celebration or preparation for celebration. But the key is that the celebration is subdued. It is experienced in anticipatory ways. It is anticipation of the celebratory surprise of an empty tomb. It is the expectation of the joy one would experience hearing the savior speak your name. It is the thrill of suspense in experiencing your denials being forgiven. For the joy that is to come on Easter is already known to us.

When Lent begins with Ash Wednesday on February 14th we already know what will come with Easter on April 1st. Yes, in case you didn't know, Lent will start on the day of love and end on the day of fools. We start Jesus journey of sharing God's never-ending love for us on Valentine's Day and end when God shows the foolishness of thought that death would separate us from his love on April's Fools Day.

Therefore, let our season this year be something of anticipatory, subdued celebration of what we know is to come... God greatest love shown on the day of fools.

Peace,

Ken

Bishop Kristen Kuempel ...

Friends,

Synod Assembly prep is proceeding a good pace.

As a reminder, this year's assembly will be held in Yakima, April 27-29. There are a couple of exciting changes I want to lift up to you so you can let your congregations know about them.

1. This year we are working on providing childcare. Having benefited from a synod that provided childcare at Assembly when I was a young mother, I am highly motivated to make this happen—and so is the Synod Assembly Planning Team! When we have more details, we will share them with you!

2. The opening and closing worship services will be live-streamed on Facebook! This will provide an opportunity for those unable to join us for worship in Yakima to be part of the event. With a little planning (and an adventurous congregation), there's even the possibility that the Assembly closing worship could be a satellite event for your congregation! (It would have to be the right situation, granted, but how fun would it be to try? I'm looking at you, Kappus.)

Registration will go live soon, so be on the lookout.

Blessings on you during this time of annual meetings!

Outreach Activities

Wash, Wipe, & Wear Distribution in January

Always like to start off with thanks to all who helped make this months WWW program a success!

Picker-uppers: Gary M. and myself

Diaper sorters: Katie D., Carol G., Marilyn S., Sandy W., and myself

Writers: Robin B.,(a new writer!) and Shirley G.

Baggers and passers: Gloria J., Martina N., and Nowella V.

Number passer and Country recorder: Luanne T.

Extra item passers: Dominique I., and Sandrina U., and myself

This month the extra items were toothpaste and tooth brushes and did we ever see the smiles when they received those! Children received a blueberry candy cane and wish I could have gotten a picture of one little boy who was blue all around his mouth! Ha! What a joy to give to those who are needy! Thanks also to the congregation for letting our program have it's own budget line item! When we picked up the diapers in Meridian from the diaper bank the director told me how they appreciate Redeemers participation as a "Partner".

Katie Davis and I attended the annual Diaper Bank meeting on the 10th. Were handed a chart showing the 2017 statistics. They supplied us with 27,090 diapers valued at $7043.40. That total served 1229 babies! In July this year the IDB will institute a nominal annual administration fee. They are also planning potty training education classes in the spring and fall for the clients.

When going to the fellowship hall you will see the February sign up sheet for volunteers. If you have never done this program you need to! Let's see some new names.....you will be rewarded! To God be the glory!

In his service, Ruth Makovsky

116 families were served this month.
116 laundry detergent
464 rolls of toilet paper
2700 diapers (108 families received)

January/February

Our goal is to raise money for chairs and other necessities for Voice of Comfort Pentecost in Rwanda. Martina Ngabonziza from Redeemer's congregation is the contact person. We hope to send money for the purchase of chairs and other items by Easter 2018. We at Redeemer are so blessed to have a warm and inviting place of worship.

For any questions please contact Martina.

BIBLE STUDY
11AM ON THURSDAYS

The format for the study is quite simple. We open in prayer asking for the Spirit to guide us in our study. Then we read a passage and discuss.

- What stood out to us?
- What do we hear God saying to us today?
- What questions does it raise?

As the discussion lessens and time allows we continue by reading another passage. This type of study does not require any prep work to join. Simply come and we will read the bible together. Please consider joining us.

All are welcome.

CHANGE OF PLANS

The Congregation Council has been engaged in conversation about how we might grow and deepen our relationships with one another. You will hear more about this at the January Semi-Annual Meeting, but in the meantime, Pastor Ken would like to invite the congregation to re-focus on our time of fellowship between worship.

We will be suspending the inter-generational learning until Lent. In its absence Pastor Ken would like to encourage people to consider spending an hour and 45 minutes on Sunday mornings with the community. One hour in worship and 45 minutes in fellowship. For our early worshipers that would be mean 8:30-10:15am. For late worshipers it would mean 9:45-11:30am.

Rekindle old friendships. Get to know someone you don't know quite as well. Share life together. Let this be a time for our community of growing and deepening relationships. If you have questions, please don't hesitate to contact Pastor Ken.

Boise Singles' Bible Study on the first Friday of the month at
 The District Coffee House from 7-8am.

We will be using the Faith Lens Bible Study. Come join us for coffee and conversation. There is no need to RSVP. Just show up and look for us. Though Faith Lens is created by Lutherans, we are an ecumenical group. Here is a link for more information:

We created a Meetup Group and made Facebook events. If people want to talk to an actual person, that would be my approach-surprise, surprise- I am happy to field phone calls.
